Dated: 22.01.2019

OFFICE ORDER

In pursuance to the Hon'ble National Green Tribunal order dated 03.10.2018, Competent Authority has approved the following action/requirement.

A) Formulation of the Task Force and Special Task Force if needed

(i) A Task Force(s) comprising of 3 members viz. ED(P), GM(P) and another notified Individual/Designated Officer or expert for each individual Stretch/Highway project entrusted to NHIDCL for the removal of encroachment at Highway and ensuring green belt on the lands adjacent to and abutting the National Highways with following TOR.

(a) The Task Force shall prepare action plan for restoring the green belt adjacent to the National Highways on the basis of 2009 Guidelines prepared by the Indian Road Congress and Green Highways (Plantation and Maintenance) Policy, 2015.

(b) The Task Force will take Immediate- steps for transplantation instead of felling of trees, wherever feasible.

(c) The Task Force take up the plantation work if the contractor / concessionaire fails to implement the plantation program within the stipulated time frame.

(d) The plantation on project highway is to be carried out in accordance with IRC SP:21-2009, Guidelines on Landscaping and tree plantation.

(ii) The Task Force will also identify the encroachments and liaise with appropriate authorities for which Special Task Force may be constituted, which will work under guidance of the instant Task Force (for each highway stretch) for removal of encroachments on National Highways.

2. Accordingly, respective technical division is directed to setup their Task Force for strict compliance of the Hon'ble National Green Tribunal order dated 03.10.2018 for their Highway Stretches.
3. This issues with the approval of Competent Authority.
